INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. The petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten and signed and dated by the petitioner, under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of an important fact may lead to prosecution for perjury. Answer all questions in the proper space on the form.
2. Additional pages are not allowed except in answer to questions 11 and 20. Do not cite legal authorities. Any additional arguments or facts you want to present must be in a separate memorandum. The petition, including attachments, may not exceed 20 pages.
3. Receipt of the $5.00 filing fee or a grant of permission to proceed in forma pauperis must occur before the court will consider your petition.
4. If you do not have the necessary filing fee, you may ask permission to proceed in forma pauperis. To proceed in forma pauperis, (1) you must sign the declaration provided with this petition to show that you cannot prepay the fees and costs, and (2) if you are confined in TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certified In Forma Pauperis Data Sheet form from the institution in which you are confined. If you are in an institution other than TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certificate completed by an authorized officer at your institution certifying the amount of money you have on deposit at that institution. If you have access or have had access to enough funds to pay the filing fee, then you must pay the filing fee.

5. Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. A separate petition must be filed to challenge a judgment entered by a different state court.
6. Include all of your grounds for relief and all of the facts that support each ground for relief in this petition.
7. Mail the completed petition and one copy to the U. S. District Clerk. The "Venue List" in your unit law library lists all of the federal courts in Texas, their divisions, and the addresses for the clerk's offices. The proper court will be the federal court in the division and district in which you were convicted (for example, a Dallas County conviction is in the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division) or where you are now in custody (for example, the Huntsville units are in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division).
8. Failure to notify the court of your change of address could result in the dismissal of your case.

CAUTION: To proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state-court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

- A. GROUND ONE: PETITIONER WAS DEPRIVED OF EFFECTIVE-CONFLICT FREE COUNSEL DURING A CRITICAL STAGE (PLEA HEARING) 6TH and 14TH U.S. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT RIGHT VIOLATION(S)

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Counsel failed to assist petitioner and develop a record during a plea hearing to support petitioner's decision to plead guilty in exchange for a 7 year sentence recommendation. Counsel did not submit or develop known facts to support petitioner's action during offense that supported guilt because he did not want to appear to be "BULLDOGGING" petitioner into pleading guilty (conflict of interest). Record shows petitioner pleading court to accept guilty plea & counsel was silent, later explaining he believed attorney/client relationship not possible. Court rejected plea because there was no support of guilt. Video & admissions by petitioner and other witnesses (police reports) show conduct was for plea offense. offered. See memorandum incorporated by reference.

Timeliness of Petition:

26. If your judgment of conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.¹

Petitioner's pleading is timely. Petitioner filed a timely motion for rehearing as authorized by Tex. R. App. Proc. 69.4(a), of which, was denied on June 19, 2019. Petitioner's conviction became final 90 days after the motion was denied. (See Foreman v. Dretke, 383 F. 3d 336 (5th Cir. 2004); Catchings v. Fisher, 815 F. 3d 207, 210 (5th Cir. 2016)). Petitioner's conviction became final on September 17, 2019 for AEDPA purposes. On May 26, 2020, petitioner's state writ was file stamped by trial court. 252 days expired prior to filing state writ, as such, 113 days remained on the 365 day time period, of which, was tolled during the filing of the state writ. On March 17, 2021, the state writ was denied W/O written order. Petitioner's one year time period under AEDPA will expire on July 8th, 2021 (Petitioner's calculations).

¹ The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA"), as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d), provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of—
 - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
 - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;
 - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
 - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Court grant him the relief to which he may be entitled.
